Packing and Shipping:

Packaging and Shipping of Yuchai Diesel Generator

The Yuchai Diesel Generator is securely packaged using high-quality materials and is shipped with care to ensure its safe arrival at its destination. All components of the generator are securely fastened to a pallet and the pallet is shrink-wrapped to ensure its stability during transit.

The generator is then loaded onto a truck, container, or train depending on the customer's needs. If the customer is located in a remote area, air or sea freight may be necessary. The delivery time will depend on the customer's location and the chosen method of transport. Upon arrival at the customer's location, the generator is carefully unloaded and inspected for any damage. Any damaged components are immediately replaced or repaired before the generator is installed.
